

SHOPLIFTERS HIT BY A COTILLO BILL

Will Deprive Them and Pickpockets of the Aid of Professional Bondsmen.

The Judges of General Sessions and the Justices of Special Sessions have sent their approval to Albany of the bill introduced by State Senator Cotillo to amend the Code of Criminal Procedure in relation to professional and corporate bondsmen which is designed to correct the evils resulting from the unscrupulous activities of professional bondsmen, recently disclosed in a judicial inquiry before Magistrate George W. Simpson.

Senator Cotillo's bill, which was suggested by Chief City Magistrate Mc-Adoo, has the support also of the Board of Police Magistrates and the managers of the department stores, as represented by the Stores' Mutual Protective Association, throughout the city. It will prevent shoplifters and other criminals opportunity to evade justice in many instances, and will prevent the repetition of the many cases of injustice to poor defendants, as brought out before Magistrate Simpson.

If the new measure becomes a law shoplifters, pickpockets and other criminals who evade justice through the assistance rendered by professional bond-men, will be deprived of this source of relief, and the authorities believe that the signing of the bill by Gov. Miller will exercise a deterrent influence upon this class of criminals.

SUNDAY MOVIES FOR CHURCH.
MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 8.—Announcement was made by Christ Universalist Church here to-day that, commencing next Sunday afternoon, and evening, motion pictures will be shown in the church with special music. Famous Dickens characters will be shown in an elaborate screen version of Dom-bey and Son. The pastor, Thomas H.
Saunders, believes motion pictures offer great religious education.
